Baptisms are usually scheduled two times each month. Call the Rectory to register for classes. Godparents must be Confirmed and practicing Catholics. Non-parishioners are required to have a Letter of Recommendation to serve as a sponsor.

Sacrament of Marriage:

To be married in the Basilica, you must be an active parishioner for at least 9 months prior to setting a date. Engaged couples should contact the pastor before making other wedding arrangements. Couples are required to attend a Pre-Cana Conference, or equivalent pre-marriage preparation program.

Letters of Recommendation:

Recommendations to act as sponsors for Baptism or Confirmation can be issued only to registered members of Our Lady of Victory Parish who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, attend Mass and receive Holy Communion regularly, have their children attending a Catholic school or Religious Education class. If married, the marriage must be in conformity with the regulations of the Catholic Church.

A Message from the Pastor

I want to thank Carm Zomeri and all of our volunteers for the wonderful Parish Appreciation Dinner on Monday, February 3, at Ilio DiPaolo's. Special thanks as well to Dennis DiPaolo and his family and their dedicated staff for the delicious meal and gracious hospitality. It was a wonderful evening.

I am deeply grateful to all of our dedicated volunteers who give selflessly of their time, talent and treasure to serve the Our Lady of Victory Parish family and to continue the great legacy of our beloved Father Baker. We are a family here at OLV and it takes all of us to make Our Lady of Victory National Shrine & Basilica a welcoming place to worship. Huge thanks to all!

Note: Cold & Flu Season Precautions

I received a communication from our Diocesan Chancery Office this past week stating the following message. When Catholics gather in Jesus' name to celebrate the Eucharist, our first concern is sharing our gratitude, our faith, and our belief in Christ among us. However, in any gathering of people, the sharing of germs is inevitable. In the midst of the cold and flu season, each of us has a responsibility of taking precautions to prevent the spread of these and other illnesses. Frequent hand-washing, covering of mouth and nose when coughing and sneezing, and vigilance regarding habits and procedures for disease prevention in high risk areas should be common practice. As we face a severe flu outbreak in our community, greater attention must be given to keeping one another healthy. Some practical steps, along with common sense, are critical to achieving this.

Should you come to Mass?

The obligation to attend Mass on Sunday and other Holy Days of Obligation is the ordinary expectation for Roman Catholics (Canon 1247). However, extraordinary circumstances such as sickness or severe weather excuse the faithful from this obligation. If you suspect you have the flu or are suffering from a serious cold or other contagious illness, please stay at home and do not risk spreading infection to others.

The Sign of Peace

Please do not take offense should someone choose not to shake hands with you during the Sign of Peace. An appropriate gesture for those concerned about spreading the flu virus might be to clasp your hands together and, with a smile, say "Peace be with you."

Receiving Holy Communion

Roman Catholics believe that both the Body and the Blood of Christ are contained fully in the Holy Eucharist under the form of either the Consecrated Host or the Precious Blood; that is, whether one receives only the Host or only the Precious Blood, one receives Jesus fully. While the Center for Disease Control has stated that the risk for infectious disease transmission by a common Communion cup is very low, nevertheless, the CDC advises that persons with an "active respiratory infection, e.g., a cold or flu" should refrain from using the common cup. Thus during the flu season and until further notice, here at Our Lady of Victory Basilica we will not be distributing the Precious Blood until further notice.

*Pray for the canonization of our founder,
Venerable Nelson Baker*

Summary of the Readings
Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The person who has been “saved,” who has “heard the good news of salvation,” still lives in an unsaved world, a world sadly oblivious to the presence of God. Today’s readings outline how the disciple is present in the world.

The outline begins with Isaiah: “Share your bread . . . shelter the oppressed . . . clothe the naked” (Isaiah 58:7). Those who hear the word of salvation are not insensitive to the urgent needs of others. Then Paul reminds his flock that he brought Christ to them not in eloquence or wisdom, but by being with them in the “weakness and fear” of their daily lives (1 Corinthians 2:3). Finally, Jesus tells his disciples to go out into the gloom and darkness of the streets of the world and let God’s light shine through their good deeds.

We disciples don’t save the world. To the extent, however, that we have heard the word of God and been awakened to God’s presence, we may spread that word and bring that presence to others. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
