Non-parishioners are required to have a Letter of Recommendation to serve as a sponsor.

To be married in the Basilica, you must be an active parishioner for at least 9 months prior to setting a date. Engaged couples should contact the pastor before making other wedding arrangements. Couples are required to attend a Pre-Cana Conference, or equivalent pre-marriage preparation program.

Letters of Recommendation:

Recommendations to act as sponsors for Baptism or Confirmation can be issued only to registered members of Our Lady of Victory Parish who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, attend Mass and receive Holy Communion regularly, have their children attending a Catholic school or Religious Education class. If married, the marriage must be in conformity with the regulations of the Catholic Church.

A Message from the Pastor

My heartfelt prayers are with you and your loved ones as we journey through these unprecedented and challenging times as a result of the coronavirus. I want to begin by sharing with you the words of the Prophet Isaiah that I have on a bookmark in my breviary (daily prayer book) that I read each morning: Do not fear: I am with you; do not be anxious: I am your God. I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with My victorious right hand. – Isaiah 41:10. I hope these words bring you some measure of comfort in these very uncertain times.

More than ever, we need to rely on our faith, our hope and our trust in God. I know we are all deeply troubled by the announcement that we cannot celebrate Public Masses at this time. However, we have to be mindful of the health and well-being of everyone, especially our senior members and those whose health is fragile or compromised in any way. In working with OLV Charities, I am pleased to announce that, as of this weekend, we will be able to provide a taped Sunday Mass celebrated here in Our Lady of Victory Basilica. The Mass can be accessed on our website at olvbasilica.org and will be updated every Saturday afternoon with the respective weekend Mass, as long as we are unable to have Public Masses with a congregation. I encourage you to watch and pray the Mass in your home at your convenience and to make a “spiritual communion.” I also want to share some quotes with you from Rev. Sam Sawyer, S.J. from an article he authored for America Magazine titled “On watching a Mass on YouTube at which I was scheduled to preside”:

“Every Mass is a Mass for the salvation of the world, because every Mass is Christ’s sacrifice for all of us... The Mass has power whether we are able to be there in person or not; it has power even if it can only be celebrated under limited and restricted circumstances, because God is not bound by circumstance... Some people may suggest that recognizing the power of the Mass should make us so courageous that we throw caution to the winds and trust in God to protect us—“Don’t you trust God more than you fear the coronavirus?” they ask. But that gets the question of trust exactly backward. Trust God enough to know that Mass is being offered for all of us, all over the world, in small chapels in religious houses and in cathedrals that are eerily empty of people, in hospitals and prisons, with people joining in prayer via YouTube and Facebook Live and radio and local access cable television and every other form of communication that human innovation has devised... Trust that the scientific knowledge that tells us how necessary it is to limit large public gatherings is itself a gift of God. And that gift calls us to exercise our charity by recognizing that every time we can avoid the risk of catching or passing on this epidemic, we are acting in solidarity with those who are most vulnerable to this disease, with the public health workers who are heroically on the front lines of this crisis and indeed with the whole world. Trust that God gives us courage in order to act wisely and not just boldly. And above all, trust that it is God who makes the Mass and the Eucharist both possible and powerful. And that power is sufficient even if we are limited to participating through a livestream.”

Venerable Nelson Baker

Message from the Pastor

I look forward to the day when this crisis is behind us and we can once again gather in our beautiful Basilica for Mass. But in the meantime as we move forward through this uncharted territory, I want to assure you that, every day, Fr. Paul, Fr. Romulus, Fr. Justin and myself offer a private Mass in the rectory for you and your intentions. We will continue to honor the requested Mass intentions as listed in the bulletin each week. In order to continue to strengthen you and your spiritual life during this crisis, I encourage you to do the following:

- Watch and pray the taped Mass on the weekend via our website and other social media outlets.
- Join me in solidarity as I pray a daily rosary for the end of the coronavirus and the health and well-being of our community. "Our Lady of Victory...Pray for us!"
- Pray the Father Baker Prayer
- If you are able come and spend some quiet time in the Basilica, we remain open for personal prayer every day from 6:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
- Please stay connected to our parish via our website. The weekly bulletin will continue to be available online and printed copies will be available at the entrances to the Basilica every weekend.
- Bishop Barron's Word on Fire Catholic Ministries is also offering daily Mass online: <https://www.wordonfire.org/daily-mass>.
- Please call neighbors, family and friends who may be alone and check to see if they need anything.

And please send in your weekly offertory envelope by mailing it to the rectory. This is your historic Basilica and our wonderful parish; we need to continue to provide the necessary support to maintain our facilities and provide for our parish ministries. Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do.

Finally, I will continue to keep you informed. Please take every precaution to care for yourself and your family. I conclude with a prayer that I have shared before and which gives me great consolation, especially in times like this:

"Let nothing disturb you, Let nothing frighten you, All things are passing away: God never changes. Patience obtains all things. Whoever has God lacks nothing; God alone suffices."

— St. Teresa of Avila

Be assured of my love and prayers! Our Lady of Victory...Pray for us!

Fr. David

Summary of the Readings Fourth Sunday of Lent

“Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light” (Ephesians 5:14). We are at the midpoint of our Lenten journey of conversion. As always, God never gives up on us, especially those who have “fallen asleep” along the road to conversion. The most powerful stories of conversion are proclaimed during these final weeks of Lent. They have the power to shake us out of our sleep. Today’s Gospel story of the healing of the man born blind exposes the real blindness in the time of Christ—the blindness of the self-righteous religious leaders. In a few weeks, at the Easter Vigil, the Church will proclaim “Christ our Light” as the paschal candle is carried into darkened churches throughout the world. May the darkness of sin that still pervades our lives, communities, and world, be dispelled by the Christ who comes to bring sight to the blind and light to the world.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Decorating at OLV Basilica Volunteers Needed

As we prepare for Holy Week and the celebration of Easter, volunteers are needed to help decorate the Basilica and to water the Easter flowers throughout the Easter season.

If you would like to help, please join us in the Basilica. We will decorate for Palm Sunday on Friday evening, April 3, following the 7:30 p.m. Mass. We will decorate for Easter on Good Friday evening, April 10, following the 7:00 p.m. Stations of the Cross.

Also, if you are able to assist with watering the flowers through-out the Easter season, a watering schedule will be posted in the work sacristy, where you can sign up for the day(s) of your choice. We need volunteers for weekdays and after weekend Masses to keep our flowers well-watered and looking beautiful!

For questions about volunteering, or more information, please contact Gregory Stachowski at 716-949-1085. All are welcome to come and help us prepare our beautiful Basilica for the celebration of Holy Week and Easter!
