Father Paul has been out of the office for a week with a bad back. Please keep him, and all the sick, in your prayers.

A BLESSING FOR THE SICK

Lord Jesus, when you were on earth, they brought the sick to you and you healed them all. Today I ask you to bless all those in sickness, in weakness and in pain.

For those who are blind and who cannot see the light of the sun, the beauty of the world, or the faces of their friends: Bless your people, O Lord.

For those who are deaf and cannot hear the voices which speak to them: Bless your people, O Lord.

For those who are helpless and who must lie in bed while others go out and in: Bless your people, O Lord.

For those whose minds have lost their reason and those who are so nervous that they cannot cope with life: Bless your people, O Lord.

For those who must face life under some handicap; those whose weakness means that they must always be careful: Bless your people, O Lord.

For those suffering from debilitating or terminal illness and for their caregivers: Bless your people, O Lord.

For those who are near the hour of death and in their final struggle: Bless your people, O Lord.

Father, your only Son took upon himself the sufferings and weakness of the whole human race; through his passion and cross he taught us how good can be brought out of suffering. Look upon our brothers and sisters who are ill, whom we now remember in a special way. In the midst of illness and pain, may they be united with Christ, who heals both body and soul. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, as we ask your help for our brothers and sisters who are ill, we ask you to help us to be healing people in our time and place. May your love touch others through us, and may I help all people to live in peace. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. (www.stfrancisnyc.org/devotions/prayers-for-the-sick)

May Jesus bless you and Our Lady of Victory watch over you.

Dianne Bosinski for Father Paul

Pray for the canonization of our founder,
Venerable Nelson Baker

Summary of the Readings Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is a common expression: "Too much information!" We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don't want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it's about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John's outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been "too much information" for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem "too much" for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.
